Spotlight: A Friend of the Lyme Community Foundation

Twenty-five years ago when the Lyme Community Foundation was created, Cindy Ahlheim and her late husband Norm were two of its first financial supporters.

"We always liked what the foundation was doing to provide programs for all ages," said Cindy. "I give every year to the foundation, the library and other local organizations. By working together, we make Lyme a wonderful place to live."

The foundation's annual appeal letter will be mailed to Lyme residents and donors this month. Friends can also donate online at www.lymecommunityfoundation.org/donate.

President's message

I am looking forward to the coming year as president of the foundation. I want to acknowledge our former President Paul Carr and my fellow board members, as volunteers these individuals give of their time to provide community events and opportunities. I am proud of our mission which is dedicated to "enhancing and supporting the community through cooperation, learning and enrichment." I intend to continue to support and further grow our community involvement and welcome all interested community members to participate.

We have the work on the new handicap ramp underway and thank our many supporters including Whites Lumber, Lyme Central and the Northern New York Community Foundation. A future Lyme Light will recognize our many, many individual donors. The community thanks you!

Mark your calendars for our summer fundraising event, Guiding Lights Gala, which will take place August 18th at 6pm at the Copley House in Chaumont. We have planned an elegant evening featuring live music, a silent auction, cocktails and appetizers in memory of Billy Patterson. Billy was a much loved member of our community. If you have an interest in being part of our fundraising committee please contact me.

Scholarship winners

Congratulations to Denilson DaSilva and Zarabeth MacMillan who were the 2023 recipients of the Lyme Community Foundation Citizenship and Service Award at the Lyme Central graduation ceremony on June 23. Denilson and Zarabeth were each awarded a $250 scholarship. Each year the Lyme Community Foundation awards scholarships to students at Lyme Central School based on an application and an essay from students.

Denilson DaSilva

Denilson participated in baseball, basketball, soccer and even played football his senior year. He also participated in Skills USA at BOCES. His hobbies include hunting, fishing and sports.

He has acquired many skills and certifications during his time at BOCES. He is currently employed at OD Green Lumber Yard in Sackets Harbor.

Denilson was a volunteer with the Watertown Wolves fan and the coach said he would do anything for the team. He was then promoted to equipment manager for the 2022-2023 season. The coach stated that Denilson had a positive attitude, was always prepared, was respectful and had a hard work ethic. What a wonderful role model for others.

Denilson attended BOCES for HVAC and his career goal is to be a HVAC/Plumbing Journeyman or own his own business someday. He stated that he would use the scholarship money to purchase new tools and plans to give back to the community by providing heating, ventilation and air conditioning services in the community. Best of luck to Denilson in his future career!

Zarabeth MacMillan

Zarabeth has been active at Lyme by participating in soccer, basketball and softball. She was also a member of a traveling softball team. She learned how to juggle school, sports and work and has shown that with hard work and determination you can be successful while being involved in a variety of activities.

Zarabeth is currently employed at Cracker Barrel. She plans to attend Jefferson Community College, continue working at Cracker Barrel, and is hoping to get her first apartment. Zarabeth plans to use her scholarship money toward purchasing books, purchasing a lap top, and paying for items for her new apartment.

Zarabeth's manager at Cracker Barrel is very impressed on how much she has grown since she first started. She stated that Zarabeth has learned the importance of communication and how it can impact your relationship with co-workers and customers. She is a positive role model to others and we know that she will be successful in anything she attempts. Best of luck to Zarabeth!

The Lyme Free Library Is 100 Years Young!

The Lyme Free Library is celebrating a very special birthday this year. During our 100th anniversary year, we hope to recognize what the Lyme Free Library has represented to all our neighbors throughout the years, as well as what it will continue to evolve to be during its exciting future. Several events and activities are in the works to help celebrate. We will keep you posted!

We hope you enjoy this fourth in a series of Lyme Light vignettes regarding the library's history – from its early beginnings – to the modern and invaluable community resource it has become today. We would like to recognize and thank the Lyme Heritage Center for graciously supplying the resources used in compiling many of these vignettes.

#4 – The 70s – An Era of Community Teamwork

Due to community-wide support, the 1970s brought tremendous growth to LFL. Donations included a magazine and record racks. In 1972, an old shed was demolished and the Gagnon Room completed. In 1973, shelves made by Jefferson-Lewis BOCES students and new electric wiring were installed. Later that year, through the efforts of then Town Supervisor, Donald DeLaurier, a Town revenue sharing agreement was enacted.

A new card catalog was purchased in memory of LFL Lifetime Trustee, Louise Tyler, and tables and chairs for the children's department purchased from the Maurice Carney Memorial. Under the supervision of Charles Carr, Girl Scout Troop 304 tackled Library landscaping. Town workers teamed up with community members on interior painting. Storm windows were installed and the construction of a conference room had begun. In the summer of 1974, the Library received a new furnace, donated by Dr. and Mrs. Wesley White, Pillar Point.

Nineteen-seventy-four also marked Chaumont's Centennial, and the Library took an active role in the celebration. A story-book float, designed by Lilly Hans, was entered in the Centennial Parade. An Open House was held at the Library, with several attendees decked out in period costume. Another Open House held in August 1975, honored Mrs. Augustus Shearer, the daughter of original Library donors, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Rogers.

By 1975, LFL circulation had climbed to 19,510. However, the severe winter of 1976, coupled with a local flu epidemic, slowed down plans for other improvements.

Lyme Heritage Center

The Lyme Heritage Center volunteers are available to assist in genealogical, or historical research on Monday, Tuesday and Thursday from 10 AM to 12 PM and on Wednesday from 1 to 3 PM. Please note that Thursday 10 AM to 12PM is a newly added session. You are encouraged to come to browse our hundreds of binders on local people and history.

We have been very pleased to welcome many visitors to our programs and research facilities this year. For the July 16th program we are delighted to welcome back our friend, Dr. Laurie Rush.

Dr. Rush says: " For thousands of years, indigenous people lived in the Great Lakes region. As we gain more and more respect for their relationships to the land we realize how much we can learn from their examples. When the first Europeans arrived, they described a wilderness, but in actuality, they were entering a carefully managed landscape of forests and fields, plantings and harvests. If we look thoughtfully, we can still see evidence of these activities today."

Dr. Laurie W. Rush is the Cultural Resources Manager and Army Archaeologist stationed at Fort Drum, NY. She holds degrees from Northwestern University (Ph.D. and MA), and Indiana University Bloomington. At Fort Drum she manages cultural property on over 100,000 acres of military land, including nearly 1,000

archaeological sites including five historic villages and over 360 farmsteads lost during the 1941 expansion of the military base; she also manages the LeRay Mansion Historic District. Dr. Rush specializes in the local history of Jefferson, Lewis, and St. Lawrence Counties, NY. As Native American Affairs Liaison for the Garrison Commander, she manages all diplomatic relations between the Tenth Mountain Division and federally recognized tribes with ancestral ties to Fort Drum land.

The upcoming programs will be archaeologist Ken Knapp on August 20 and video tour of historic Chaumont on Sept 17.

As always, the programs are free and open to the public. Please come and spend some time with us.
